EDISON FRANCHISE TAX WILL BE PAID UPLAND IN FUTURE

Company Accedes to Request of Edward E. Gray and Will Pay Fee

CONFERENCE HERE TODAY

Utility Attorney Offers to Draw Up Document and Present to City

City of. Upland was today assured by G. B. Selig, of the Southern California Edison company legal department, that this company would obtain a franchise to operate in the city and pay its franchise tax, as it has not been doing in the past.

Edward E. Gray, city attorney, called the matter to the attention of the company, on the grounds that the power firm is required by law to have a franchise and pay a tax. Mr. Selig, in a conference here this morning, acceded that point, and asked permission to draw up a franchise and present it to the Upland city council.

This means that the city will obtain an additional revenue of several hundred dollars annually. Under the California constitution as it existed prior to 1911, no franchise was required of utilities supplying power for lights. Mr. Gray suggested that a franchise was necessary to cover the firm's heating and power operations.

A 2 per cent tax is to be paid by the company on its gross revenues from heating and power within the city.

"As the city grows, this tax will naturally amount to more," Mr. Gray said in explaining that at present the tax will produce several hundred dollars. "I want to commend the attitude of the company throughout the negotiations."

The public utility company's operations in the city date back to the time before Upland was incorporated, and no franchise has ever been issued. As the Ontario Power company, the service was rendered until several years ago.

In studying the situation, Mr. Gray found that no franchise had been issued and that the city was losing by not collecting the fee.

125 Attend Party at Red Hill Club

More than 125 persons enjoyed the annual stag party at the Red Hill Country club last night, the event in the clubhouse marking the close of an all-day golf tournament played by teams from Red Hill, Mountain Meadows, Redlands and San Bernardino.

The all-day program was one of the most successful conducted by the club and interest was active in the events throughout the day.

Levi Mellon of Second avenue, who at present is staying for a time with his daughter, Mrs. V. S. Wallace, and family in Los Angeles, came home Sunday accompanied by a North Dakota friend, D. McCann. The two returned Thursday to Los Angeles and will attend the North Dakota picnic in Long Beach tomorrow.

To observe the World Day of Prayer, as will be done on the same day by Christian churches all over the world, members of the Woman's Missionary union of the Chaffey district will gather Friday. Feb. 20, in the Upland Mennonite church, the prayer service to begin at 2:30 p. m. Devotional service will be led by Mrs. G. V. Woolsey of Long Beach, who for some time has been coming to Ontario for the Friday afternoon meeting of the prayer circle started by the late Rev. Alice Z. Laidlaw.

The principal speaker will be Mrs. Mary Laird of Claremont, a missionary to China. The general theme of the program will be "Ye Shall Be My Witnesses."

Other numbers on the program will be: Music, Mrs. Emil Horsch; silent meditation, Mrs. C. E. Wetherbee; call to worship, hymn, prayer by Rev. A. J. Neuenschwander; solo, Mrs. J. L. Grahame; round table of prayer, Mrs. J. A. Stavely; offering, solo, Mrs. Fred Reed; prayer and benediction, Dr. Bert Foster.

Officers of the Missionary union are Mrs. K. W. Fuller, president; Mrs. C. N. Poe, vice-president-at-large; Mrs. Lawrence Corn, secretary, and Mrs. J. A. Hiebert, treasurer.

Miss Price's Candidacy In Show Is Boosted at Etiwanda Meeting

ETIWANDA, Feb. 13—Candidacy of Miss Kathleen Price for the National Orange Show princess was given a considerable boost at the meeting of the Etiwanda Service club here Wednesday night. William B. Hutton, her campaign manager, formally introduced her. She is being sponsored in the district by the service clubs of Etiwanda, Cucamonga and Alta Loma.

Miss Price is the charming daughter of O. H. Price and is a popular favorita in the three communities in which she is receiving the strongest support. Votes for the princess to rule in a court during the annual citrus classic are given to the candidates by the purchasers of family tickets prior to the show opening. Her competitors are Miss Elizabeth Harris of Upland and Miss Vesta Harlin of Fontana.

Miss Price and her sister, Marian Price furnished the music during the meeting and prior to her formal presentation before the club. Mrs. William Hutton was the accompanist. Guitar and vocal duets were presented by Will C. Pearson and Carlton Brownless.

Lawrence Mueller gave a talk on scouts and scouting and a discussion was led by A. H. Utman. Moving pictures of Alaskan and Canadian scenery were shown by W. E. Campbell of the Southern Pacific company, Pomona.

KATHLEEN PRICE, Etiwanda contestant for title of Orange Show Princess

Herbert Hall who resides in Upland, and is the Etiwanda Pacific Electric agent, was program chairman. Guests present were Eldon Atwood and Dale Richardson of the Cucamonga Service club.

A St. Patrick's night dance to be held in The Sycamores March 17, has been planned by the Cucamonga and Etiwanda Service clubs.

UPLAND-ONTARIO CHOIRS TO UNITE

Easter Cantata by Dudley Buck Will Be Given by Two Choirs

Remembering the marked success of the plan followed last year, the large chorus choirs of the Upland Methodist church and the First Methodist church in Ontario will again unite in presenting the Easter cantata, according to a popular vote by the two choirs.

The cantata selected for presentation is the very beautiful Dudley Buck composition, "The Story of the Cross."

There will be approximately 80 voices in the combined choir, 35 of them being masculine, and the chorus numbers are expected to be especially effective. There also will be a number of splendid solos, duets, etc., the two choirs numbering many excellent voices.

As was discovered last year, the two large choirs complement each other splendidly, the one proving strong where the other shows a shortage of voices for particular numbers.

The Upland choir will be directed by the regular leader, Mrs. Ralph J. Wilson, while the Ontario group will practice under the leadership of J. Lynward Grahame, director of that choir.

The cantata will be presented once in each city, on Good Friday and on Easter Sunday. It is not yet known in which church the service will first be held.

Otto Gottwald Head of De Molay Chapter

Otto Gottwald is today the new master councilor of the Old Baldy chapter of De Molay, following the election Wednesday. He succeeds Howard Warren, who formerly held that position.

Howard Finley is senior councilor and James Sharp of Cucamonga is junior councilor.

NEILSON DECIDES TO BE CANDIDATE

Citrus Association Manager Will Seek Place on Education Board

Official announcement was made today that Archie J. Nielson will be a candidate for a place on the Upland board of education. The position held for five years by Fred E. Draper will be vacant with the expiration of his term and as Mr. Draper has refused to seek re-election, Mr. Nielson's friends have solicited his candidacy. He is manager of the Upland Citrus association and has been active in the community.

The election will be held March 27 and at the same time local people vote for a member of the local board, the election will be held on the Chaffey board of education.

Thos. W. Nisbet will be a candidate to succeed himself on the Chaffey board.

In recent years there have been no contests over school board positions, and there is no report of any more candidates being in the field for either the place on the Upland, or the Chaffey board.

UPLAND'S RAINFALL NOW 11.19 INCHES

Successive Rains For Two Weeks Boost the Local Season Record

With .70 of an inch of rain falling since Tuesday afternoon, Upland's season rainfall is now 11.19 inches, according to figures shown by J. R. Johnston's rain gauge on Twenty-second street.

This record is practically three inches ahead of the rainfall for this time a year ago, the figures then being 8.35 inches.

With the exception of one or two heavy showers, there has been very little run-off during the rains for the past two weeks and the moisture has penetrated to a very satisfactory extent.

Etiwanda Rainfall Ahead of 1930

Etiwanda, Feb. 13—Etiwanda today lays claim to being one of the most favored districts in the citrus territory from the standpoint of the amount of rain received this season.

Total for the season up to yesterday morning was 11.43 inches as compared with 8.66 inches a year ago. Normal rainfall for the season is said to be approximately 12.12 inches.

BUILDINGS ARE TO BE DEMOLISHED IN CITY'S CAMPAIGN

Residential Structure on A Street Will Be Torn Down Soon

STRUCTURES CONDEMNED

Improvement Will Be Made Along City's Front During Month

In the campaign to improve the appearance of the southern boundary of the city announcement was made today by Ted C. Combs, city building inspector, that C. E. Moore, owner of the residential structure on A street just east of the OK fruit exchange, plans to demolish the structure within a month.

This is one of a dozen buildings to be demolished on order of state authorities, all of the structures being located within the vicinity of the Santa Fe tracks, extending from Third avenue east.

One of the aims of the Upland chamber of commerce this year is to improve the view of the city on the south and announcement of these condemnation orders brings added support in the civic campaign.

Mr. Combs said that renewed interest is being shown in the improvement of the housing conditions in the section occupied largely by Mexicans near Foothill boulevard from Sixth to Campus avenues.

Several months ago a movement was started to improve that territory and efforts are still being made, with a realization of the plan seen as a possibility in the near future.

Included in the campaign to improve the appearance of the city's railroad entrance was the removal of the present Santa Fe depot and the construction of a building in keeping with the atmosphere of the city and in keeping with the amount of freight money paid by local shippers to the railroad.

UPLANDER TELLS OF SEEING LINCOLN

Andrew Schnurr Present When Presidential Candidate Spoke in Illinois

Abraham Lincoln wasn't a pleasant man to look at. Tall and appearing as though he was worried, the emancipator was a direct contrast to Steven A. Douglas, his opponent for the presidency.

Such is the description given today by Andrew Schnurr, an Uplander, who spends his winters in California at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Flintoff, Sixth avenue.

"Everyone felt kinda sorry for him, he was so tall and had such a long face," Mr. Schnurr reminiscinced as he looked back to the fall of 1860 at Rock Island, Ill., when a huge crowd gathered to hear the friendly debate between Lincoln and Douglas.

"He told us all about Lincoln early last night," Mrs. Flintoff said. "Then when Lincoln's radio program came over the air, we knew 'father' had remembered correctly, for the radio announcer said almost the same thing."

Coming to America from Germany with his brother when 14 years of age, Mr. Schnurr had not received his naturalization papers at the time of Lincoln's presidential election.

"When Lincoln talked the people listened," the erstwhile resident said. "What he said went straight to the hearts of the people. I don't believe Lincoln would have been elected if he and Douglas were the only candidates."

That his memory is still clear was shown when Mr. Schnurr related the names of the other candidates and some of the bitter battles between the north and south candidates.

"I was a hundred or two feet away from Lincoln, but I can remember him and Douglas and the crowds," he added.

Mr. Schnurr's summer home and his six sons are at Fort Dodge, Iowa. Until seven years ago he owned property on San Antonio Heights and lived here.

PIONEER PAGEANT COMMITTEE NAMED FOR 1931 EVENT

Chamber Takes First Steps in Presenting Annual Celebration Here

KITE TOURNEY PLANNED

Directors Will Meet at Camp Baldy Feb. 27; Road Is Discussed

Appointment of a committee of five men to start at once in planning the 1931 Pioneer Pilgrimage and decision to sponsor another kite tournament for the youths of the city featured the meeting of the chamber of commerce directors in the Davis cafe at noon today.

Ernest H. Gibson, a resident who has quickly become a vital force in the community, was named by President L. R. Bradley to be the chairman of the pageant, scheduled to be given Sept. 9 of this year. Walter W. Horak, who as chairman of the 1930 committee, was also recognized by being made a member of the new committee. Gene Nisbet, the director of the pageant, was given a place and it is expected that much of the burden of the pageant itself will fall on his shoulders, as was the case last year. Other members are F. H. Manker and J. W. Mehl.

Other preparations for the event will be made soon, as the committee begins to plan this city's outstanding annual production. In connection with this event and the fiesta program being sponsored throughout the state, Clair E. Kirk, chamber secretary, was authorized to attend a meeting at Fresno. Mr. Kirk is a member of the state chamber of commerce publicity committee, and it is this group that will meet in the north.

F. H. Manker was named chairman of a committee to plan for a kite tournament to be sponsored by the chamber as it did two years ago. Other members of the committee will be appointed and a

Economy In Water Is Pointed Out As Annexation Advantage

As a matter of economy, many residents of the San Antonio Heights district would profit by joining the city of Upland, Richard G. Manley, city service manager, said today in discussing the movement expressed by R. O. Price.

Residents in the Heights now getting city water are required to pay their share of the bond interest and redemption charges, the official explained, and cited the case of Frank McKenna, who is receiving city water. His charge for city water is higher than persons in the city pay.

City taxes on Mr. McKenna's property would have amounted last year to $44, but because his property is outside the city the extra water charge amounted to $88.85.

"I do not believe I am going too far in saying that the city council would authorize the extension of the city water system to include all the residents in that area if they should decide to come in," Mr. Manley said.

Persons in the Heights not at present getting the city water would not make such a great financial saving as would those already getting city water.

"But the assurance that all the property in the Heights would be served domestic water would result in that property being more fully developed," Mr. Manley continued.

From the city's standpoint, no special effort is being made to get the Heights residents to join the city, and Mr. Manley explained the matter following the announcement of a change in sentiment among the residents there.

ROADSIDE MARKET INTO COURT AGAIN

Mrs. Rena Mitchell Charged With Selling Frozen Oranges Here

Foothill boulevard citrus market gets into one legal difficulty and then another one, and today Rena Mitchell is charged with selling frozen oranges.

Purchased from a wholesaler, who obtained the fruit at Fontana, Mrs. Mitchell is charged by J. Fred Anderson, horticultural inspector, with disposing of the fruit in a condition violating the health measures.

Mr. Anderson is reported to have protested to the wholesaler, who then returned the purchase price to Mrs. Mitchell. She is to appear before Judge George R. Crane Tuesday afternoon on the charge.

Harry D. Gritzner, Ontario, who has a stand on West Foothill near Benson avenue, brought the citrus roadside market into court when he charged M. Posey of selling fruit from a truck contrary to law. This case has been continued in Judge George R. Crane's court for two weeks.

Leaders of Water Company Re-elected

William Springer was re-elected president of the West End Consolidated Water company at its annual meeting this week. William Rohrig was chosen to continue as vice-president, with Mrs. R. W. Davis secretary-treasurer.

Wilbur Adams was the only new person elected on the board of directors. Other directors are Mr. Springer, Mr. Rohrig, R. V. Ward, J. J. Atwood, F. W. Palmer, Kirk Vernon, J. B. Leaman, and W. B. Cavers.

CUCAMONGA-ALTA LOMA RAISE $600

Within Week More Than $600 Given For Red Cross Relief Fund

Raising a Red Cross drought relief fund of more than $600 in slightly more than one week is the remarkable record just made by the Cucamonga and Alta Loma communities, according to a report made by Chas. B. Motsinger, one of the two-man campaign committee, his partner being A. L. Swift.

While there had been some individual giving in the two communities, there had been no concerted effort made to contribute to the drought relief fund, Mr. Motsinger said. It was Will Rogers' relief broadcast made a week ago Saturday that called to the minds of Mr. Motsinger and Mr. Swift their Red Cross activities during the world war and the generosity with which their communities had always contributed.

During the week, with some time lost because of the rains, these two men called upon their friends and neighbors and found them in a similar state of mind concerning the need of the drought sufferers. So within a few days, with no formal call having been made and no quota set, the two communities gave more than $600.

The work will be finished within a day or so, Mr. Motsinger said, and the amount will be forwarded at once.

SCOUT CEREMONY IS SEEN BY MANY

Impressiveness Marks Court of Honor and Addresses Here Last Night

Impressiveness and a large audience marked the meeting of Boy Scouts in the Upland Woman's club last night, with the presentation of many merit badges and honors the outstanding feature.

History of scouting, what a boy must do to become a scout, and what effect it has on a boy were related by the various speakers.

ALARM TO CALL SCOUTS

Two successive blasts of the Upland fire whistle tomorrow morning will be the signal for the Boy Scouts to assemble in the D street park and receive instructions concerning their good-turn tasks during the day. In honor of the 21st anniversary of scouting, a birthday cake will be presented by the Old Baldy council to the first troop having 50 per cent of its membership present at the park.

Mayor P. H. McQuillen will assign the following tasks to the troops: No. 1, remove rocks and make improvements on the property west of the San Antonio Community hospital; No. 3, make cooking grill at scout council ring at San Antonio park, and No. 4, make parkway and lawn at Boy Scout lodge on Third avenue.

Glenn M. Atwood, fire chief, pointed out that the two blasts of the fire whistle are for the scouts, and not for the firemen to respond.

Meeting on Street Names Is Postponed

City planners did not meet last night to talk over the proposed names for the Upland streets.

Conflicting meetings resulted in the session being postponed from last night to next Friday evening. At that time all the suggestions that have been made concerning the new street names and the entire street-naming problem will be analyzed.

For more than five weeks, the city planning commission has been studying street names and when the members convene next week it is expected a definite plan will be approved.

Junior High Wins Basketball Games

Three basketball victories were won by the Upland junior high school ninth grade team this week. Only one more game remains, that being with Fontana, and indications are that the local quintet will close the season without defeat.

Two Chaffey teams, known as "A" and "B" and Fontana were the victims of the Upland fast playing aggregation this week. All the scores were decisive.

PRICE SEES NEED FOR S. A. HEIGHTS TO ANNEX TO CITY

Citrus Grower Points to Water Solution as Reason For Joining Upland

COMMITTEE WILL STUDY

Water Group Hears Suggestion and Report That People Are Favorable

Solution of the water problem in San Antonio Heights lies in that district becoming a part of the city of Upland in the belief of R. O. Price, who has been closely connected with that district for years and who is a close student of the water situation.

Mr. Price made this declaration first at the meeting of the city's water advisory committee, and since then there is reported to be more or less discussion among residents in that district concerning his comment.

It was Mr. Price's suggestion that the committee as a whole study the water situation in San Antonio Heights and more definite discussion on the matter is expected at a later meeting.

Relative to the Metropolitan Water district, Mr. Price said he believes that only from the Colorado river will this city, San Antonio Heights and the Foothill cities obtain their plentiful future water supply.

Previous efforts of San Antonio Heights annexation to the city have failed, but it was intimated that residents in that district have changed their attitude.

Under the present system, water will not be supplied to property not at present improved, and this results in a severe check on the development of that preferred residential area, Mr. Price declared.

"There are other good reasons in addition to the water problem why that district should become a part of the city," Mr. Price said. Asked what these reasons were, he pointed out the fire and police protection which the residents are not entitled to now, opportunity for placing restrictions on certain class of development, and the possibility of furthering the residential and citrus interests.

The city's advisory water group has had its second meeting on the water question and it will continue its discussions until all facts have been obtained. While the San Antonio Heights matter is not under their jurisdiction, Mr. Price's declaration was heard with interest.

Mr. Price was a former resident in that area that is not incorporated, but at present does not have any property in the Heights.

"The Heights was originally laid out as a choice residential district," Mr. Price added, "but due to lack of water, development has been greatly checked. A few people near the borderline now get city water by paying at a higher rate than do the people within the city limits, but the San Antonio Water company is at present serving the residents there."

Mrs. Chester Coffin of Santa Monica, wife of the city attorney of the coast city, is the houseguest this week of Mrs. Beth Townsend and her mother, Mrs. M. E. Hilty, at their home on Euclid avenue.

Abraham Lincoln

Yesterday was the birthday of that great martyr, Abraham Lincoln. And what a story is that of Lincoln—what an inspiration are his life and accomplishments to the younger generations. Such an example as Lincoln is an especially strong inspiration for the poor boy, as none ever advanced from a more lowly beginning to the highest position and esteem in the gift of his countrymen. Lincoln, the lad born in poverty and ignorance, to Lincoln, the great humanitarian, emancipator and president, the man than whom no American holds a greater place in the minds and hearts of his countrymen; Lincoln, the man honored and revered throughout the civilized world. This was the accomplishment of perhaps our greatest American.

And now comes along this man, Edgar Lee Masters, whoever he may be, with his attack on Lincoln's life and character. Lincoln had critics in his own day who said just as mean and unworthy things about him. Perhaps this man Masters is simply creating notoriety through repeating what those of other days have said. The remarks of men of his own day did not stop Lincoln's march to greatness. These and other obstacles probably only caused that man of indomitable will to fight all the harder and the position he gained is ample evidence that statements and accusations of his critics were not true. The repeating of them today by this man Masters will not detract one bit from his greatness, neither will they place Masters any higher in the estimation of his countrymen. Long after Masters' attack is forgotten Lincoln will still be living in the hearts of his countrymen as our greatest American.

Alongside the statements of Masters place the following word picture of the great emancipator, the author of which we do not know:

The angels said, "Let us hide Abraham Lincoln where the world will never find him." They hid that great, big, kind, generous, humanitarian, God-fearing, sympathetic soul in that long, lean, lanky, homely, gaunt, ungainly body; they bronzed his cheek until he looked like an Indian; they hardened his hands with toil; for employment they gave him common work, like poling a flatboat on the Ohio and working in a country store. For a home they gave him a log cabin in the wilderness, for parents common people whose names were unknown five miles away.

They never knew how it happened, but they couldn't keep him hidden; and one morning this sleepy, dreary, drowsy old world crawled out of bed, rubbed her eyes and started on a still hunt for a great man. She struck a new scent and a new trail and it led out through the woods to a log cabin in the wilderness, on a hill, among the trees, and the world waked up and rapped on the door. Abraham Lincoln arose, so big, so high, so manly, so tall, that the roof fell off and the logs rolled down. He stepped forth a giant among men, where he towered above all human beings.

Forest Fire Prevention Cuts Loss

Encouragement for motorists who have tried to do their bit in saving California's forests from the ravages of fire is found in the report for last year of the U. S. Forest Service, which has jurisdiction of the 18 national forests of the state, which contain approximately nineteen million acres. This report shows that a new record was established and that less than 20 per cent of the average annual loss from fire was experienced. Only 35,000 acres were burned, compared with an annual average of 188,000 acres.

In the four national forests of Southern California the loss last year was reduced to five per cent of the average. The nearest approach to the state record was in 1915, when only 41,000 acres were burned. In naming the conditions contributing to this fine record, S. B. Show, regional forester, states that more cooperation was given by travelers and users of the national forests who are becoming educated to the dangers of carelessness with fire.

Now that Beaumont with its Japanese cherry blossom festival, sponsored by the Rotary club of that city, has been placed on the map as one of the attractive and successful celebrations in Southern California, their next door neighbor, Banning, is coming to the front with an event of its own—Almond Blossom Time in Banning. Over a thousand acres of almonds are now in blossom at Banning, and they hail the sight as "Nature's Most Gorgeous Spectacle." It's all out of doors and there is no charge, but you had better go not later than Feb. 28. Beaumont's celebration this year will be held in International park, Sunday, March 29. In this park, where the festival will be held for the first time, is an eighty acre bowl site for the quaint and beautiful ceremonies. This event is patterned after a similar celebration in old Japan and the local Japanese assist in the event at Beaumont.

In spite of the fact that automobile mileage showed approximately ten per cent decrease last year there was an increase of four per cent in automobile deaths and 13 per cent in injuries over the preceding year. Nearly a million people in the United States were injured in automobile accidents last year, resulting in 32,500 being killed. Forty per cent of the fatalities occurred at street intersections and twice as many were killed on state highways as on any other type of thoroughfare. Sixty-eight per cent of the accidents are said to have been due to improper driving, and the three main causes exceeding the speed limit, driving on the wrong side of the road and failing to grant the right of way. No use commenting on such a showing as this—it's easy to draw your own conclusions.

Here's one that's going the rounds of the press as a Japanese boy's essay on frogs: "What a wonderful bird the frog are! When he stand, he sit, almost. When he hop, he fly, almost. He ain't got no tail, hardly, either. When he sit, he sit on what he ain't got, almost."

"This would be a happy land if all the youngsters could become a Bobby Jones or a Babe Ruth," says a paragrapher in the Los Angeles Times. He seems to have left out the girls. But then, they'd all want to be a Clara Bow, we presume.

Why Advertised Goods Sell

San Bernardino Telegram: There are many good reasons why advertised goods sell best. In speaking of nationally advertised goods, for example, travelers are able to purchase the same brand of cracker in the east as in the west, in the north as in the south—and all of them are equally good and crisp.

And the same principles apply to all merchandise and goods made or sold locally. The buyer knows that a local advertiser is ready to stand behind his product because his advertising is proof of his confidence.

The advertser is known and has pledged himself to stand back of his merchandise. He has given his printed word to the general public and must keep it. It is the mark of good faith and is recognized by buyers the world over as such.

Almost without exception, all of the improvements in packages, or other containers have been the direct outcome of advertising.

Rare Gifts From Foreign Lands Turn Home Into Real Museum

Possessing a collection of foreign curios, antiques and valuable articles of marvelous handiwork that number well into the hundreds, Mrs. W. B. Stewart, 388 First avenue, has literally turned her home into a museum in which one may spend several hours and still find something more to arrest the attention.

And not the least interesting fact about this museum is that the splendid collection is figuratively the hundred-fold return of bread cast upon the waters.

For 25 years Mrs. Stewart has been carrying on individual though extensive educational work among Koreans in this district and, like the pebble dropped into the pool, her work has sent out ever-widening circles of Christian influence until today she is known in schools and missions around the world and in Korea today her name is almost a household word.

Mrs. Stewart's work among the Koreans began almost without a definite beginning when she started giving instruction in English to a few individual members of the Korean colony then established in Upland. These activities soon broadened and she was teaching large classes two nights a week besides giving private lessons. "Giving" is the correct word, for Mrs. Steward was doing work the ambitious young Koreans could not afford to pay for.

In later times Mexican and Indian students have known her aid, but especially to the Koreans was her time devoted and today college and university graduates, missionary workers and preachers in their native land owe their success to her "first aid" instruction and encouragement.

Known in Korea as the "mother of millions," addressed as "mother" by many of her former pupils, and even as "grandmother" by a flourishing younger generation, Mrs. Stewart receives messages and gifts from the four corners of the earth.

Hence the museum.

None but an expert cataloguer could begin to list all the intensely interesting articles—except Mrs. Stewart. Each one of these hundreds of pieces, some many hundreds of years old, others recently made, all marvelously fashioned, she handles affectionately as she tells the name and history of the giver.

There are cabinets of curios, odd little trinkets, miniature carvings, etc., but the greater interest lies in the surprising number of rare, and in many instances, priceless pieces. Exquisitely embroidered household articles, wonderfully carved brass utensils, marvelously wrought trays, lovely pictures, and innumerable other articles make up the collection.

Mrs. Stewart generously announces that anybne interested in seeing the treasures will be welcome to do so.

Seen From a Chaffey Window

By One of the Faculty

The announcement early this week that Mr. Thomas W. Nisbet has consented to be a candidate for reelection to the Chaffey Union high school board has been received with general satisfaction on the part of all who know of the service of Mr. Nisbet throughout the past years.

As a trustee he has seen Chaffey grow from a school of 400 hundred to an institution of nearly 2,000 regular pupils. He has taken an intimate interest in every phase of the school life; scholarship, social and athletic.

Nor has Mr. Nisbet neglected other civic interests. The citrus associations, the Cooperative Fumigation and Supply company, San Antonio Community hospital and other civic organizations have had the benefit of his council and interest.

He was a pioneer in Y. M. C. A. and Boy Scout work in the community, and has always kept up his interest in these activities. The young people have found him a friend in many ways.

* * *

Did you attend the 21st anniversary service at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening and the court of honor at the Woman's club last night? If you were unable to be present you missed some thrills. One cannot face these boys and young men who are in training for leadership in America, without feeling that our country will be safe in their keeping, when a few brief years have hurried by.

Chaffey has been happy to cooperate in the work of of the Scouts since Dr. R. C. Stone received the first certificate in scout work ever to be issued by the California State Board of Education. He led the work in our community following the great war as a continuation of his war service among the soldiers.

The Chaffey basketball teams, both high school and junior college, are giving the fans the thrill of a series of games each of which is a potential championship contest. A single defeat may make much difference in the championship aspirations of the athletes.

If the Chaffey teams can finish the season without further defeats, league championships are theirs, and the right to compete for Southern California honors.

The junior college team has the hardest schedule, in that the remaining games with the other section leaders are all on foreign floors.

The high school team still has three critical games, with two of them on the home floor. Covina, San Bernardino and Redlands are the three teams that will try to down Chaffey in the final exciting games of the Citrus Belt League race.

The new Ford is an economical car to own and drive

Low first cost, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation mean a distinct saving to every purchaser

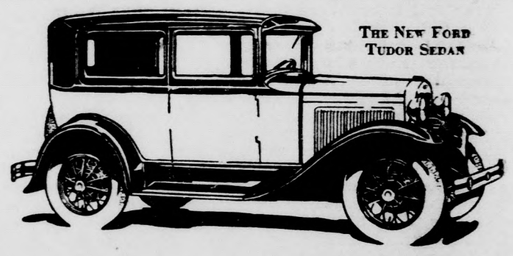

THE NEW FORD is a splendid car to own and drive because of its attractive lines and colors, safety, comfort, speed, reliability and long life.

There are, in addition, three other features of importance to every far-seeing automobile owner . . . low first cost, low cost of operation and up-keep, and low yearly depreciation.

During the life of the car, the day-by-day economy of owning a Ford will amount to considerably more than the saving on the first cost. You save when you buy the Ford and you save every mile you drive.

The reasons for this economy are simplicity of design, high quality of materials and care in manufacturing and assembling. Many vital parts are made to limits of one one-thousandth of an inch. Some to three ten-thousandths of an inch. Throughout, the new Ford is an outstanding example of fine craftsmanship in automobile engineering.

The more you see of the new Ford—the more you talk to Ford owners and experienced mechanics—the more certain you become of this fact. . . . It brings you everything you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price.

Annual Inspection Auxiliary to Sons Successful Affair

Passing triumphantly through the annual official inspection and at the same time entertaining the California-Pacific department president, Mrs. Mary Mathews and members of her official corps, was the record made Tuesday night by the Auxiliary to the Sons of Veterans at their regular meeting held in the Woodman hall in Ontario.

With the auxiliary president, Mrs. Nannie Dewey, presiding, the staff of officers proceeded to exemplify the ritualistic work of the order, the reviewing officer being Mrs. Gertrude B. Kennedy, division inspector of Fresno. The officers had for some time been practicing faithfully and the results were plainly shown in the practically perfect manner in which they put on the work.

Two candidates for membership, Mrs. S. A. Yeagerline of Upland and Mrs. Ellen Miller of Ontario, were initiated into the auxiliary.

The meeting was open to the Sons of Veterans and several of the members were in attendance. Following the regular meeting an enjoyable social hour was held and the state and division officers were greeted and entertained, as were other visitors from Pasadena and Riverside.

Two members of the auxiliary, Mrs. Howard Graves and Mrs. N. E. Taylor, claim February as their birth month and to them was presented a handsomely decorated birthday cake. During the evening an abundance of appetizing refreshments were enjoyed.

Merry Birthday Party Delightful Affair at Woman's Club

Tuesday afternoon the Woman's clubhouse was the scene of a merry birthday party. A table for each month was given over to those whose birthdays fell in that month. The groups vied with each other in devising suitable decorations and in giving a stunt, the prize for the best one being a birthday cake. When luncheon was announced the stage curtains parted revealing a wedding party complete even to the cunning ring bearer. With slow and stately tread the party advanced to the middle of the room where the vows were taken; the minister asking the usual questions by sounding long drawn out notes on his violin and the contracting parties replying by means of whistles. After congratulations they seated themselves at the January table. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostesses of the day, Mrs. F. H. Manker being chairman. There was much merriment and great enjoyment of the interesting decorations which made the tables a glow of color. Flowers were used with profusion and with trimmings that suggested the month. Poinsettias held sway for December and January. St Valentine supplied the motif for the February table. The violet is the flower of March and appeared with lavish profusion with green favors and shamrock trimmings. April people sat snug and cozy protected by an umbrella from which tinsel streams of rain poured down. July showed a flag centerpiece and was gay with red, white and blue.

After luncheon the club was called to order for a short business session. Visiting guests were introduced and the president asked Mrs. Emery, the guest of Mrs. E. L. McCartney, to tell of her interesting experiences in club work in South America. Then the other stunts began, each month introduced by the general chairman, Mrs. William Atchley. At the February table hearts were trumps. They offered a toast to George Washington in unison and then the chairman, Mrs. William Littlewood, told of the many notable people (as well as themselves) that had been born in February.

The March table was in charge of Mrs. W. B. West who, as auctioneer, quickly sold the violets donated by Mrs. W. F. Goodban, netting the club the nice sum of $5.00. And all this time the July people punctuated the applause with shots from toy pistols, the degree of their enjoyment being accurately indicated by the number of reports. The April people ventured forth from under their umbrella long enough to respond to their month: Mrs. H. M. Guy, table hostess, reading a clever original poem and Mrs. D. C. Perry, announced to sing a solo, playing an April fool joke on all present.

A May frolic followed in which all the May people took part with great spirit and to the delight of the audience. More shots from the July table. August presented Lucy Mae Randle and Betty Foss who sang "The Good Old Summer Time" in costume. Mrs. W. R. Farmer accompanied them on the piano. This was a real treat. More shots from the July table.

September presented Mrs. J. A. Stavely in a talk on the "Month of Beginnings." She closed with a description of autumn colorings in the eastern states. Immediately October, represented by Miss Rosa M. Dool, took the floor to claim all the best of the coloring and the glory of the harvest home. (No decision was rendered on the debated question.)

The lovely story of John Alden and Priscilla was chosen by November. A reading from the story was given by Mrs. Ernest H. Gibson. At the right moment the stage curtains parted enough to show in a large frame a living picture of the lovers on their way to church, she with her Bible and he with his gun on his shoulder. Little Miss Edna McAllister made a lovely Priscilla and Master Jimmie Hawkins as John Alden posed equally well as the lover ready to protect with his life. It was a beautiful picture.

And when the turn of December came there was "Old Santa" himself, (Mrs M. H. Bailey,) in full regalia and a full pack. He distributed bags of tangerines, candy and nuts to all. Mrs. J. W. Shepperson was hostess at this table. Several beautiful solos were presented by different groups. Mrs. J. F. Sawyer sang a suitable song at the mock wedding; Mrs. Robert Baker, from the March table sang the "Tumble Down Shack in Old Erin." And Mrs. A. J. Neilson, guest at the December table, sang a beautiful Christmas solo at the close of the program. While the judges were reaching a decision the club voted to send all the little Christmas bags to the David and Margaret Home.

Soon the tea wagon bearing the prize cake came in and all watched with bated breath as it slowly rolled to the center of of the room and then turned back to stop at the May table. With a gasp of surprise the group accepted it and voted it to their chairman, Mrs. F. H. Manker. It was one of the most successful affairs given by this club which has given so many interesting programs.

Raymond Watkins Has Birthday Party

His eleventh birthday loomed as an important event to Raymond Watkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond K. Watkins, and he planned a party—and what a party!

Raymond enlisted the aid of his father in preparing the clever invitations, a miniature messenger boy carrying under his arm a detachable note bearing the invitation to the party. Thus prepared, Raymond went forth to bid his friends help him celebrate and so many friends did he find that upon the eventful day, Tuesday, Feb. 10, he was the happy host to 27 guests.

His mother, assisted by Miss Ruth Crane, aided in entertaining the energetic boys, who found almost as much pleasure in playing the various games as they did in partaking of the appetizing birthday collation.

Fires were built in the backyard and the boys roasted wieners in preparation for "eating time." To these favorite viands Mrs. Watkins added several other dishes that are dear to a boy's palate, the menu including an immense white birthday cake handsomely decorated in pink and white, baked as a gift for Raymond by Mrs. W. G. Hill.

The birthday lad also received many dandy gifts from his friends and the members of his family.

FUNERAL THURSDAY FOR KENNARD SWAN

Many Attend Services Held at Presbyterian Church; Flowers Beautiful

Funeral services for Kennard Swan, 12-year-old son of Mrs. Edna R. Swan, who died Monday night of acute escending paralysis following scarlet fever after the best of medical aid had proven unavailing, were held Thursday afternoon in the Upland Presbyterian church. A previous report that an operation had been performed was incorrect. In the large crowd gathered for service were friends of the lad, ranging from sorrowing schoolmates of his own age up to white-haired men and women who had been attracted to Kennard by his cheery smile, his industry and courtesy. And many personal friends of the stricken mother and relatives came to express their sympathy by their presence.

The casket was surrounded by a bower of lovely flowers, which like the life of the lad they symbolized, grew only to bloom for a short season, still, again like the happy life of the loveable boy, lending their ray of sweetness and leaving a memory that is beautiful.

Dr. R. C. Stone, officiating minister, read the Twenty-third Psalm and made a beautiful talk telling of the admirable characteristics of the boy whose memory they were consecrating. Dr. Bert Foster of St. Mark's Episcopal church, added an inspiring word of the certainty of the peace and happiness to be known in the spiritual life, giving comfort to the bereaved family.

A quartet including Miss Lysle Merchant, Mrs. Susan Mehl, J. L. Grahame and R. F. Lemon, sang two beautiful numbers, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "When We Shall Meet."

Pall bearers were selected from among Kennard's schoolmates, being Donald Walker, Kenneth Walker, Albert Lindsey, Frank Watkins, John Nichols and Bob Jenison.

Interment was made in Bellevue cemetery, the committal service being read by Dr. Stone.

Arrangements were in charge of the Stone Funeral home.

Printing that pleases at The Upland News.

He Shall Grow as the Lily

Out of respect for the memory of Kennard Swan, whose death this week is mourned by all throughout the community, Dr. Bert Foster, rector of St. Mark's church, wrote the following poem:

A flower was opening in beauty
To gaze on the morning light,
When the Gardener came and removed it
Away from my longing sight.

For awhile I felt discontented,
And wondered the reason why,
But submission took hold of my spirit
And I lifted to Him my eye.

He spoke in the kindest manner,
And gave me a look sublime.
Then, I knew He had only removed it
To a far greener clime.

He knew that the frosts of winter,—
Temptation and sorrow and sin—
Might injure its God-given beauty,
So He planted it nearer Him.

—Bert Foster.

VESPER SERVICES START NEXT WEEK

Mrs. Winifred Johnson Prepares For Annual Pre-Easter Musicals

With the thought of sharing with others the pleasure of the music she herself finds so inspiring, Mrs. Winifred M. Johnson is preparing to begin her annual series of pre-Easter vesper services at the Upland Presbyterian church.

Each year, Mrs. Johnson, who is an accomplished organist, gives a half hour vesper program on each Wednesday afternoon, the music being selected with the view of providing a quiet and peaceful half hour of meditation and inspiration.

At each service Mrs. Johnson will be assisted by special soloists, Mrs. Helen Kaiser of Ontario being scheduled as the vocalist for this season's first vesper service to be held Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 18.

Among the other soloists who will assist on other programs are Mrs. Dorothy Neilson, Arnie L. Moore and Mrs. Maud Grahame, all vocalists. Other special numbers also are being arranged.

The public is cordially invited to attend the vespers, being free to come and go as their time permits.

Two Upland Women Witness Near-Riot Over "Red" Parade

Mrs. S. J. Brooks and Mrs. L. O. Bowman, who made a visit to the Huntington library Tuesday, experienced a thrill that had not been scheduled on the day's program when they became involuntary witnesses of the communist near-riot in Los Angeles.

When the street car on which they were leaving Los Angeles reached the vicinity of Main and Second streets, all traffic was blocked by a milling crowd that packed the streets for several blocks and scores of policemen were handily wielding their clubs to disperse the crowds. However, the greater part of the crowd seemed to be curious spectators and the street cars did not run close enough to the center of action for the passengers to see the would-be paraders, who were attempting a red demonstration similar to others being held in concerted action in all large cities throughout the country.

After considerable delay the cars were permitted to proceed, and the Upland passengers reached the Huntington library in time for only a brief visit before threatening rain forced their early return.

Routing of the Colorado river aqueduct via a direct westerly route from the San Jacinto tunnel, to pass near Corona and entirely miss this valley and the originally proposed Colton-Ontario course, is indicated in maps recently completed by the Metropolitan Water district.

GETTYSBURG SCENE DEPICTED TO CLUB

Speaker and Impersonator in Impressive Program at Lions Meeting

Scene at the Upland Lions club meeting in The Sycamores at noon yesterday was that of Gettysburg when Abraham Lincoln delivered his memorable address.

Dr. S. Z. Sharp of La Verne, 26 years of age at that time, present at the address, vividly described the scene as it was on that day. He told of the conditions in the nation at that time, with the various factions splitting the country. He told of the 1 hour and 20-minute oration preceding Lincoln's appearance on the stage.

When it came to the point in the story of Lincoln's address, Roy Miller, also of La Verne, appeared before the club, impersonating the emancipator. He impressively delivered Lincoln's Gettysburg address.

Dr. Sharp then continued with his description of the scene and of the man. The speaker said he was within 30 feet of Lincoln during the address. The ceremony dedicated the Gettysburg battlefield as a national cemetery and the president's remarks were so sympathetic to those who had lost relatives during the battle that no applause followed his address.

Glenn M. Atwood had charge of the program. President J. Emery Sargent presided.

Guests included William Springer, J. L. Grahame, Dean Charles J. Booth, and visiting Lions.

Announcement was made that next Wednesday the club will meet with the Ontario club, and the following week, a joint service club meeting will be held.

Upland Legion Men Attend County Meet

Four members of Upland Post, American Legion, Earl E. Marsh, Floyde Atwood, Thos. E. Howarton, and Ted Littlefield, attended the county council monthly meeting held Tuesday night in Barstow. Legionnaires from the 12 San Bernardino county posts were present to the number of 144.

During the meeting plans were made to secure support from the Legion for the D. A. R. bill now before the California legislature, which would require all school teachers in the state to take an oath supporting the United States constitution similar to that required of other public officials.

Several future activities of the county council were discussed, including plans for the March meeting in Needles and the May meeting to be held in Twenty-Nine Palms. The April meeting probably will be held in Colton and Randsburg will be the scene of the annual inland district meeting.

The state-wide airplane roundup to be held on Sunday, Feb. 22, is being supported by all county posts and Legionnaires will gather at noon on that day at March field to make reports.

En route to Barstow Tuesday, the Upland men stopped to attend a conference at the Victorville rest camps.

Southern Pacific To Put on "Dollar Days"

According to Clyde Whiteley, the Southern Pacific agent in Upland, his railroad is going to try an experiment—something new and different in railroad circles—"dollar day" bargains. In other words, on Feb. 20 and 27 you can ride "100 miles for $1," the return limit being at midnight Tuesday following sale of ticket. A few samples are given in their advertisement in this issue. For instance, you can buy a round trip ticket between Upland and San Francisco for $11.15, whereas the regular fare is $24.75.

These special sale dates provide for transportation on all trains, both coach and Pullman, and the rate is only three-fifths of the regular one-way fare.

PETITION TO JOIN CITY IS APPROVED

Document From Lemon Heights District Will Be Given to Council For Action

With the petition from the Lemon Heights district seeking annexation to Upland being approved by the county supervisors, the document is today in the hands of E. C. Mehl, city clerk, who will present it to the city council for action at its meeting next week.

It will be up to the council to set a date and make other arrangements for an election. At the election, voters in the district will express their opinion concerning becoming a part of the city.

Desire to obtain the city's domestic water is said to be the reason back of the petition. The document, which was sent to the supervisors for an official check and approval, bears the names of the following: LeRoy Bradley, Leonora Bradley, Floyde L. Atwood, Ruth B. Atwood, Luella J. Genung, Mendel L. Gottfried, Irene Gottfried, Wilbur Rider, Sadie Rider, E. H. Genung, Mrs. E. H. Genung, Mrs. Beulah Davis and J. H. Davis.

If the voters decide to join the city, water mains will be extended to give service to that district.

Pomona Man Buys Cucamonga Grove

CUCAMONGA, Feb. 13—The 10-acre citrus grove on San Bernardino road, known as the Rupp grove, but for the past year belonging to Mrs. Hill in Banning, was sold the past week to A. K. Stryker of Pomona. The deal was made by Claud Bradley of Claremont.

Mr. Stryker does not plan to move to his new property and will operate it through a manager, it is said.

CHAFFEY WIN OVER COVINA PREDICTED

Championship Rung Seen With Two Other Crucial Games on Deck

This being Friday, the thirteenth, and Chaffey high school playing Covina in basketball this afternoon, disastrous things might happen to send a ripple against the Tigers' championship hopes.

Alone in the first place, race at present, Chaffey plays the team today that a week ago caused Redlands to suffer a backset.

Fears, however, were not very deep set, as Coach Kaiser and his crew of veterans went on the Chaffey floor to meet the visitors for the second game this season. Earlier in the season, Chaffey had little trouble in winning, and the Tigers have improved considerably since then.

Getting off to a slow start, the team has been steadily improving until today the quintet, consisting of players from the Upland district, is in championship form.

San Bernardino is next on the schedule at the county seat a week hence, with Redlands, the closest rivals for first place, coming here for the final game of the season.

In junior college circles, Chaffey goes to Santa Monica tomorrow night for what is expected another victory. The Panthers are out in front, with only Santa Monica and the strong San Bernardino Indians yet to face.

Number of Special Exhibits Are Now at Upland Library

Because of Boy Scout week, Lincoln's birthday as well as Washington's, the library is full of exhibits. About one hundred pamphlets pertaining to Boy Scout work are on the large table in the boys' and girls' department with the other books on the shelves about the same subject.

At the front of the lobby is an excellent likeness of Abraham Lincoln and on a book truck are all sorts of books about Lincoln—biography, poems, and even novels, with Lincoln as a theme. Next week a collection of books about Washington will be exhibited.

Handbill Ordinance Gets Two Victims

Upland's recently enacted ordinance prohibiting the distribution of handbills within the city struck again this week when two Los Angeles distributors were hailed into court, after they had left some circulars on local lawns. Elmer and William Petter were each fined $5 by Judge George R. Crane.

Evan Heckenlaible was held to appear in the superior court on a burglary charge while his partner in the alleged robbing of the pool hall at Second and A street, Ira B. Fackler, 16, was turned over to the juvenile court.

T. J. Eason was also held to appear in a superior court trial on a charge of issuing fictitious checks. J. M. Ross signed the complaint.

Forty dollars was paid by T. R. Wilson on a charge of reckless driving. He was also given a suspended sentence of six months in the county jail.

R. C. Posie, charged with selling fruit from a truck on the public highway, will hear his case Feb. 24. Frank Burns was fined $20 for speeding.

Beach Fish Report Tells of Early Run

By D. L. Vasbinder

The following report of beach fishing conditions is given for informaion of those who enjoy this sport. They are as near authentic as possible from first hand information. It should be borne in mind, however, that these condition change over night, with storms, rip tides, currents, moon and sun affecting them.

Surf fishing has started a full month ahead of the usual runs. Corbina, yellowfin, perch and some pompano are being taken from Belmont pier to Oceanside. At Belmont good catches are reported. Halibut are taking artificial lures in sheltered spots along the beach around the mouth of bay and streams in that vicinity.

At Newport the barge offers the best winter fishing in many seasons. Live bait is available at all times and a good run of halibut is on. They run small in size, the top being six to eight pounds. Bonita running up to eight and 10 pounds are also being taken. Sand dabs and mackerel are running. It might be of interest to note this barge offers some good prizes. Each day a free pass is given for the largest fish. Also a season pass is given for the largest fish, goes until another takes a larger fish.

On the pier at Newport halibut, sand dabs, bonita and mackerel. In the surf some croaker, corbina and perch are starting Pompano are also there. At Laguna the usual run of winter fishing is on. Various kinds of perch, sheephead, sculpin being the main attraction, although some surf varieties are beginning to show up.

At San Clemente some halibut, small bass and the usual run of perch, smelt, and a few surf fish, croaker and corbina are being taken. At San Onofre small corbina and perch, with some yellowfin are present and biting.

At Oceanside some good corbina have been taken, not great in number, croaker, and in the lagoons, few halibut.

SCOUTS TO HEAR OF OUTDOOR SPORT

Izaak Walton League Will Furnish Speakers on Fish, Game Subjects

Experiences in fishing and hunting and necessity of conserving the natural resources will be related in an address once a month before each Boy Scout troop here as the result of a new project started by the Old Baldy Izaak Walton league.

Speakers will come from the ranks of the members of the local chapter. Hubert Manker, president, will assign speakers for each troop, the new feature to start as soon as one of the troops has an open date.

The plan is for a Waltonian speaker to tell in a few minutes some interesting experience while hunting or fishing and to point out ways the scouts can aid in conserving the resources.

Whether or not the local Waltonian chapter will sponsor a junior Izaak Walton league has not been definitely determined.

GROWERS WIN IN FIRST HOOP GAME

Upland Ramblers Fail to Keep Up Pace in Opening Game at Chaffey

Upland Lemon Growers defeated the Upland Ramblers, formerly called Upland All-Stars, last night in the first game of the basketball series, sponsored at Chaffey. The score was 27 to 7, although the first quarter ended in a tie at 5 to 5.

The Growers being in better condition and a more plentiful supply of substitutes resulted in the Ramblers falling behind after the first encounter.

This was the only game played last night, as things are just getting started and more teams are being entered.

Alta Loma has entered a five and this quintet is scheduled to play Creighton's next Thursday night. A Claremont and Pomona team are also seeking to join the league and Fred W. Clapp, director, is now finding ways and means of limiting the teams to eight.

ALTA LOMA

ALTA LOMA - CUCAMONGA, Feb. 13—The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary societies met at the home of Mrs. W. W. Hatch all day Wednesday. Mrs. J. G. Stoebe had charge of the morning session with a lesson on prohibition. A fine contributed dish luncheon was served at noon with Mrs. George Keyes and Mrs. E. R. Hively in charge. In the afternoon Mr. Chamberlin gave a talk on missionaries, particularly emphasizing what he had heard at Riverside at the recent meeting for returned missionary workers.

Mrs. C. P. Shaffer entertained a crowd of young people at her charming home on the Foothill boulevard Wednesday night. There was a choir practice at first followed by numerous jolly games with Wava Hively in charge. About thirty young folks were there.

Mrs. Kenneth Hunter and Miss Alice Hawker entertained their club, known to outsiders only by the letters F. S. G. Four tables of bridge occupied the most of the evening.

There will be a Valentine party at the home of Pauline Gregg this Saturday evening for the Sunday school class taught by Mrs. R. S. Buchanan. The members include Theda and Freda Smith, Dorothy Owings, Hazel Spangler and Elizabeth Forster.

Friday night is ladies night at Alta Loma. The Service club has secured several reels of pictures from the Southern Pacific Railway company and Mr. W. E. Campbell, the traveling passenger agent will be there to answer all the eager questions. Mrs. Wayne Morse is to speak on her trip to Alaska also. Then, too, there will be lots of other entertainment—just ask Harry Wright about his and Gordon Billings ability as actors!

Next Sunday night is Boy Scout night at the Cucamonga Community church. Mr. Chamberlin has issued an invitation to the Girl Scouts also from Alta Loma and Cucamonga, although the service is mainly for and about boys. "A Boy Auction" is the title of the sermon.

Additional Red Cross Donations This Week

Additional donations to the Red Cross drought relief fund are being received, the Upland total contribution having reached a very satisfactory figure above the quota. The money is badly needed by the national organization and all donations are gladly welcomed.

Names announced since the publication of the list last week are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McConkay, P. J. Schmidt, Mrs. S. G. Moore, Anna Schumacher, A. J. Neilson, May Krehbiel, and the eighth grade of the Upland junior high school.

Foster Curry was a guest at the meeting today and invited the directors to meet at Camp Baldy as his guests Feb. 27. He also asked that the chamber do what it could in seeing that the Glenn ranch road from Camp Baldy be kept open throughout the year.

Mr. Gibson gave a report on the progress of the membership campaign.

The proceeds will be in part devoted to needed musical equipment in the new junior college building, and the balance to next year's Hawaiian football trip fund. Reserved seat tickets go on sale tomorrow.

"Pinafore" is a broad comedy. It is being handled in the brilliant style set by De Wolf Hopper, one of America's greatest musical comedy stars. The performance will have many snappy features and specialities, for which costumes from Paramount's have been procured. These present solo, duos, and ensembles in colorful array.

The splendid chorus number 50 voices, which snap through their numbers with a continuous play of striking action and pretty music. The ever-new "Sailor's Horn Pipe" fairly makes the stage swing in rhythm when the ensemble step together.

The cast is widely talented: Ted Moses, soloist and reader on Pomona college Glee Club last year, comes from a line of successful stage artists, and he gives to the role of Captain Corcoran the touch usually seen only in professional company. Admiral Sir Joseph Porter, pompous old symbol of flub dub ceremony, comes to life at the hands of Richard Baer. Hopper himself lives again in Dick Dead Eye, scalawag of the fleet, when Heath Seapy wobbles on deck. Frank Marino's playing of the Boatswain's Mate is good and "hard." Frank has the further Italian grace of dancing, and he will be so featured to the delight of the audience. Even a musical comedy has a lover, and Ray Williams sings the exacting role of Ralph, with its high tenor passages, with ease.

18th Street P.-T. A. Has Founders' Day Ceremony, Program

Using the pretty candle lighting ceremony, Mrs. K. W. Fuller of Ontario conducted the Founders' day exercises at the meeting of the Eighteenth street P. T. A. held Thursday afternoon. Candles were lighted for Mrs. Theodore Birney and Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, founders of the P. T. A. movement, and for the late Mrs. A. W. Burt, a member and a staunch friend of the Eighteenth street association. During the ceremony a pretty tribute also was paid to Mrs. D R Kilbourne, president of the association.

Mrs. Fuller told of the founding of the organization and of its growth and also explained the use of the money received in the silver offering which is to be used to aid in establishing new associations.

Having read of the movement started by a woman in Helena, Ark., to raise money through school organizations throughout the country to buy lunches for the destitute children in the drought areas, the local association decided to contribute to the fund, and the children of the school are adding their pennies, nickels and dimes today.

The meeting closed with a social hour during which tea was served.

Mrs. Kilbourne asks that all members who plan to attend the Ontario council meeting in Fontana on the fourth Wednesday of this month, please notify her.
